

Information sent to participants august, 30th, 2010:

Dear participant at CAC 2010,

135 participants have now signed up for the 7th CAC in Alta!

- The abstract booklet is now published: www.caa-cac.org . You will get a paper version when you are coming to Alta and Rica Hotel.
- For conference program see www.caa-cac.org. (there will be small changes, we will update the web page frequently). Please check if your name, institution and title of presentation is correct!
- Remember that you have 15 min for your presentation + 5 min to answer questions. Presentations in Russian will be interpreted, and take some longer time. For our Russian participants, a selection of English presentations will be interpreted. During these presentations there will be some whispering
- If possible, please send your presentation by e-mail to ajna.nystad@bondelaget.no with a copy to Ulrike.naumann@bioforsk.no before the conference starts, so our time-schedule doesn't crash at day one! If you use Mac, please bring along a Mac adaptor, power adaptor and of course your Mac. If you have made your presentation on PC, a USB-stick is sufficient.
- We have placed an order for good weather. Nevertheless you should take along a rain jacket, weatherproof shoes and a warm pullover. The dinner at Sorriniva on Tuesday, 7th will be in special surroundings, and you will need warm, casual clothing. During conference, you may choose between suit or casual dress.
- the Norwegian power norm is 230 V and 50 Hz (as in the rest of Europe unless England). The most electrical "things" also work at 220 V. The outlets and plugs are these ones:

- We will have a secretariat at Rica hotel. It will be open for some time on Sunday, 5th in the afternoon, Ajna Nystad is the secretary for CAC in Alta.
- Monika Nesse Bredal is our contact at Via Travel. If you have any questions about your registration, payment (except post-conference tour) and booking of flight tickets, please contact her: alta.konferanse@viatravel.no or phone: +47 78449554. Via Travel is working on the conference. If you are not yet contacted by Monika or her colleagues about payment, you will hear from them by e-mail.

First CAC-events:

- Pre-conference tour, departure from Rica hotel at 09.00 AM on sept, 4th.
- Meet and greet on sept, 5th, 07.30 PM (19.30)

We wish you a good journey to Norway and Alta. Welcome!

Earlier sent information (july 2010):

Dear participant at CAC 2010,

There are now 100 participants registered for the 7th CAC in Alta!

The conference is coming closer, we have this information for you:

- Attached you find a pdf-file with all by now submitted abstracts for conference. We will update that file if necessary, and you will get a new version when you are coming to Alta in September. Please contact me if your abstract is missing or need to be corrected.
- Attached you find the preliminary program. We are still working with some of the presentations, and there will be some changes. Check updates frequently on our website www.caa-cac.org.
- The participants of the post – conference tour will receive a separate e-mail. It is still possible to sign up for the post-tour. If you are interested, please contact ulrike.naumann@bioforsk.no
- If you have a poster presentation: please deliver your poster at the CAC secretariat as soon as you arrive at Rica Hotel in Alta.
- Networking expo: are you looking for project partners? Then you may present your project on the networking expo on September, 8th (last day of conference). Please send an e-mail to ulrike.naumann@bioforsk.no to registrate for project presentation at the networking expo. It is also possible to arrange meetings during the conference. Contact us if you need a meeting room at the hotel.
- You have 15 min for your presentation + 5 min to answer questions. Presentations in Russian will be interpreted, and take some longer time. For our Russian participants, a selection of English presentations will be interpreted. During these presentations there will be some whispering.
- If possible, please send your presentation by e-mail to ulrike.naumann@bioforsk.no before the conference starts, so our time-schedule doesn't crash at day one!
- We have placed an order for good weather ☺ Nevertheless you should take along a rain jacket, weatherproof shoes and a warm pullover. The dinner at Sorrisniva on Tuesday, 7th will be in special surroundings, and you will need warm, casual clothing.
- Alta Rica Hotel is in the center of Alta. Around the corner you can find the Art and Handcraft House where you will find food and handcraft products from Finnmark. During the mid-conference tour we will visit Alta Museum where you can find the largest concentration of rock art in Northern Europe made by people with a hunting-fishing economy. You can read more about Alta here, and more about Alta Museum here. For more information about Finnmark County, take a look here: www.finnmark.com
- Monika Nesse Bredal is our contact at Via Travel. If you have any questions about your registration, payment (except post-conference tour) and booking of flight tickets, please contact her: alta.konferanse@viatravel.no or phone: +47 78449554. Via Travel is working on the conference. If you are not yet contacted by Monika or her colleagues about payment, you will hear from them by e-mail. If you are going on holiday and have no access to your e-mail which you used when making your registration, please let us know.